

Cancer Focus Northern Ireland is your local cancer champion, here to help you and your family if you have cancer. We'll help your community take positive steps to a healthier life, to lower your risk of cancer, and we are determined to bring a more hopeful future by funding ground-breaking research.

Over the past 2 years we have been implementing an ambitious Retail Development Plan focusing on improving our appearance and delivering on business improvement across our network of charity shops. As part of this development we are currently seeking to recruit an outstanding Retail Development Manager to join our enthusiastic target driven team.

We are seeking an exceptional person and to succeed you will need experience of managing multi-site retail locations preferably within the charity or fashion industries. You will be driven by results and possess sound business acumen as well as being able to motivate your team and drive performance.
